

Malt whisky 'Uisge Beatha' (The Water of Life)
Highlands
Smooth & Floral
Known as one of the most scenic regions in Scotland, this and of rugged peaks & heather covered moorland is geographically the largest of the whisky-producing regions. It covers three major areas & a variety of warm, rounded single malt whiskies: The West Coast (West Highlands) with its maritime influence on malts such as Oban. The Central Highlands, including the heather & honey from one of Scotland's highest distilleries: Dalwhinnie.
Aberfeldy, 12 years. Creamy malt with sherryed fruit with a trailing hint of smoke on nose. Sweet, malty, a gentle peat on palate but nonetheless the mouth feel is clean with faint hint of citrus.	£7.25
Clynelish, 14 years. Taste confirms the nose, peaty & spicy. A perfect balance of peat & rare malt spices.	£9.25
Dalwhinnie, 15 years. Smooth, soft & lasting flavours of heather, honey sweetness & vanilla followed by deeper citrus-fruit flavours & hints of malted bread.	£6.75
Dalmore, 12 years. The aged Oloroso butts smooth its rich, fleshy body with great harmony. Almost a concentrated citric mouth-feel captivates & tantalizes the middle part of your tongue.	£8.00
Dalmore, 15 years. A rich & aromatic heart full of orange marmalade, cinnamon & nutmeg with a mandarin, vanilla, crushed apple & ginger mouth-feel to tantalize your tongue & an abundant aftertaste of peppery spice & oak to reward the palate.	£12.75
Dalmore, 18 years. An aroma of orange, marmalade, cinnamon & nutmeg. A galaxy of dark chocolate, candied citrus fruits, rich coffee, nutmeg & cloves top tantalize the palate. An aftertaste of citrus fruit, oak & spice.	£20.25
Dalmore Cigar Reserve This specially crafted malt whisky has been expertly made to be the perfect accompaniment to a fine cigar. Matured initially in American white oak ex-bourbon casks and 30 year old Matusalem oloroso sherry butts, it is then finessed in premier cru Cabernet Sauvignon wine bariques	£34.25
Dalmore, Port Wood. An indulgent smooth single malt matured in American white oak ex-bourbon casks and aged Tawny Port pipes.	£10.25
Dalmore, King Alexander. This single malt whisky from the Dalmore Distillery was crafted to honour the act of saving Scotland's King in 1263, this expression unites six specially selected casks housing spirit of perfect maturity. Whiskies matured in ex-bourbon casks. Matusalem Oloroso sherry.	£34.25
Edradour, 10 years. Smooth, creamy, light malty taste, with mellow warming finish.	£7.75
Glengoyne, 10 years. Clean, sweet. Green apples & grass with a hint of sweet liquorice.	£7.50
Glenmorangie, 10 years. First, vanilla is detected on the tongue before it ripples along the palate bringing a burst of flowery fruitiness. About a minute after tasting, you are left with a clean & salving aftertaste with hints of orange & peach.	£5.50
Glenmorangie the Quinta Ruban, 14 years. Dark mint chocolate, tangerines & Seville oranges mingle with sandalwood & walnut before giving way to a spicy finish of pepper & nutmeg. Mint chocolate & walnuts envelop the palate like velvet, laying the foundations for rose, Turkish delight & sweet Seville oranges.	£9.75
Glenmorangie Malaga Cask 12 years. Glenmorangie went and got its hands on some casks that were previously home to one of the rarest fortified wines in the world. Malaga Dulce! The whisky was initially aged in ex-bourbon casks, and moved over to the Malaga wine casks for a finishing period.	£13.75
Glenmorangie, 18 years. Rich, rounded & sweet with dried fruits & a complex floral fragrance. The taste is balanced between honey, malt & flowery scents. Dates figs emerge with a hint of wood smoke.	£15.75

Glenmorangie the Signet. A strong Aruba espresso fused with a treacle plum pudding, rich with sherry, & candied orange peel. A contrast of rich sweetness with an explosive crackle of sizzling spices & bitter mocha.	£29.75
Oban, 14 years. Mouth-filling late autumn fruits, dried figs, honey-sweet spices, a smoky malty dryness.	£7.00
Old Pultney, 12 years. Dry, medium bodied & smooth, faintly salty with a slight sherry note. Elegant touches of smoke & peat.	£5.60
Old Pultney, 18 years. Old Pultney 18 Year Old Highland Single Malt Scotch Whisky. Indulgence defines this rich 18 year old. Taking its character and colour entirely from the casks within which it has been nurtured for 18 years this is a deeply warming whisky	£16.50
Royal Brackla, 18 years. A bold and noble spirit, the distillery style is opulent and fruity and as such has been a secret savoured by a privileged few. Royal Brackla 21 year old whisky is finished in the finest Olorosso sherry casks, resulting in a rich opulent finish.	£17.50
Royal Brackla, 21 years. The oldest whisky in Royal Brackla's range of sherried Highland single malts was finished in a combination of 3 sherry casks: oloroso, Paolo Cortado, and Pedro Ximénez. Wonderfully balanced, the expression is bottled at 80 proof.	£29.50
Speyburn, 10 years. The nose is quite citrusy & zesty. Sugared orange peels & herbal notes, wood shavings & pine oil, rubbed spearmint leaves & winter spice. There are notes of malted barley & cereal sweetness. The palate is of medium-body & quite smooth. There are well-balanced notes of malt extract & aniseed with hints of something herbaceous & a touch of smoke.	£6.75
Springbank, 10 years. The nose is big-bodied with oaked aridity. The peat is present & quite pungent with an earthen rootiness. Notes of exotic fruits & a hint of salinity. The palate is full-bodied with good helping cereal sweetness. There is richness to the peat, with a dark nuttiness & whirling smoke. The finish is long & crisp with a coastal tang & a trailing peat with oaked dryness.	£10.25
Springbank, 15 years. Like a storm gathering off the Kintyre coast, this 15-year-old Springbank is dark and ominous, yet delicious and is part of their core range. Best enjoyed after dinner or with your favourite cigar, this is a true classic.	£13.25
Tomatin Legacy. Light & delicate with a candy sweetness which is peppered with hints of pine. Lemon sherbet, pineapple & crunchy green apples with a touch of freshly baked sponge cake.	£5.10
Tomatin, 12 years. The palate is rewarded with a unique combination of attractive flavours - a balance of apples, pears & malt, with a gentle hint of nuttiness introduced by sherry wood. Very smooth & silky.	£5.50
Tomatin, Port wood. 14 years. Quite a powerful nose. Big bunches of red berries & grapes. Vanilla, oak & hints of white pepper. Dark chocolate dipped in strawberries on the palate with crushed almonds, walnuts, Victoria sponge (with jam & cream in the middle) & a centre of Oak. A neat addition to Tomatin's collection.	£8.50
Tomatin, 18 years. Sweet & honeyed at first, with an oaky edge. Develops in the mouth with a bite of citrus & a hint of dark chocolate. Long, sweet & slightly dry.	£15.50
Tomatin, Cask Strength, This whisky is the first Cask Strength expression to be added to the Tomatin Highland Single Malt Scotch Whisky core range, allowing to showcase the true Tomatin style in its most natural state – natural colour, no chill filtration, full strength at 57.5% ABV. A marriage of full maturation Bourbon & Oloroso Sherry cask, it is spicy & an excellent addition to the range.	£7.95
Auchentoshan, 12 year. One of the best 10 Year Old aromas you can find. It is medium bodied, soft fresh with a hint of oak. A clean & fruity palate & a delicate sweet finish.	£7.50
Auchentoshan American Oak. Triple distilled and matured solely in American bourbon casks. The result: a Lowland Single Malt Whisky with the sweet aromas of vanilla and coconut, along with the	£5.75

signature smooth, delicate Auchentoshan taste.
Auchentoshan Three Woods. This unique Auchentoshan Lowland Single Malt Whisky has been matured in three different cask types. Moving from American Bourbon to Spanish Oloroso Sherry – and finally Pedro Ximenez Sherry casks. Three Wood is a rich, complex whisky with incredible toffee & sherry oak flavours.	£9.25
Glenkinchie, 12 years. Light body. Smooth & malty with a touch of peat.	£6.50
Speyside Fruity & Delicate Over half of Scotland's malt whisky distilleries can be found within this one region. Speyside – the lush, fertile valley of the river Spey – is undoubtedly the heart of single malt whisky distilling in Scotland. Its classic flavours of honey, vanilla & fresh fruits (apples, pears) combine to create whiskies that are both sophisticated & elegant. With age, & especially when matured in sherry casks, they evolve to deliver dried fruit & sweet spice flavours.
Aberlour, 12 years. Classic Speyside Single Malt. It is gold in colour with a dry fresh fruity aroma with sweet notes of mint toffee. It has smooth & creamy taste, with spicy-sweet nutmeg & honey combining with the deny freshness of autumn fruits. A long, soft warming finish.	£7.25
Aberlour Cask Annamh. Meaning “rare cask” in Scots Gaelic, single malt created in small batched from whisky matured in Oloroso Sherry Casks.

<h2>Islay & Islands</h2> <h3>Peaty & Maritime</h3> Sitting amongst the Inner Hebridean Scottish Isles, are a scattering of malt whiskey producing islands such as the Isle of Islay, Jura, Arran, Mull & Skye. Rugged, windswept & barren, the island landscapes generally produce single malt whiskies with strong peaty, maritime aromas. The Island malts are unmistakably powerful, bursting with flavour, from the recognised smokiness apparent in almost all offerings, to the more surprising notes such as the black pepper found in Talisker.
Ardbeg, 10 years. An initial moderate & clean sweetness is rapidly followed by a mouthful of deep peat notes, with tobacco smoke & strong espresso coffee, which then gives way to treacle sweetness & liquorice. The mouth feel is firstly lightly spiced (astringent), then chewing, mouth-watering, full & finally dry.	£7.95
Ardbeg, An Oa. Pronounced `an Oh` named after the Mull of Oa located near the distillery.	£8.75
Ardbeg, Uigeadail. Uigeadail (pronounced 'Oog-a-dal'). A fine drop of Ardbeg bottled at cask strength. A marriage of Ardbeg from bourbon barrel & sherry butt which gives a sweet & smoky finish to this malt. Uigeadail is the loch from which all Ardbeg water flows.	£11.25
Bowmore, 12 years. Bowmore has the classic peat of an Islay with a new set of flavours to caress your pallet. Floods of honey, & a citrus flavour of lemon/orange to commingle on the palate with an overture or earthy smoke. As soon as it leaves the tongue an effervescent taste of salt water & toffee. The after taste is one of a sophisticated smoky, sweet, salty, & ginger that is long lasting.	£7.65
Bruichladdich, The Classic Laddie . Lightly peaty, grain mash sweet & just a touch salty - the mid-palate impression is meatier as tangy tastes of sea breeze, unsweetened coconut & oak resin unite.	£8.25
Bunnahabbain, 12 years. Intense but still sweet with some peat hints, a rather rustic but still delicate taste.	£7.75
Bunnahabbain, 18 years. Meaning foot of the river. Non-chill filtered and natural colour, this rich mabogany malt is one of the favourites. It is intensely warming with dried fruit, sherry, toffee and spices leading to a rich honeyed nuttiness.	£23.75
