FROM A DIFFERENT GRAIN 70

Something a bit different. Unlike the other flights that are based on Single Malt Whiskies this flight focuses on Aged Blended whiskies and Single Grain Whiskies. These categories of whisky are often overlooked and put second when compared to a Single Malt, however they can certainly hold their own and when given the chance offer a different experience to your whisky tasting journey. For those with a sweeter palate and like a smoother lighter dram this flight is perfect for you. We even finish of your tasting with a signature Whisky cocktail created for a cocktail.
